

Media Release

July 3, 2018

MERRICKVILLE-WOLFORD HIRES NEW CAO/CLERK/ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR

For Immediate Release – The Village of Merrickville-Wolford is pleased to announce that Douglas J. Robertson has accepted the position of CAO/Clerk/Economic Development Director and will commence employment on July 5, 2018.

Mr. Robertson has an MBA From Wilfred Laurier University and is currently pursuing the Municipal Administration program and his Certificate of Economic Development. He has over 25 years of progressive municipal work experience including seven with the City of Ottawa in a senior management role. He has worked both as a CAO/Clerk for a small municipality and as an executive officer to the CAO in a major Ontario city. He lives in Stittsville with his family and has agreed to a one-year contract.

“I am please to join the Village of Merrickville-Wolford and have the opportunity to collaborate with Council, staff and the community in furthering their strategic vision” noted Mr. Robertson.

On behalf of Council, staff and the community I welcome Doug to this important and challenging role” stated Mayor David Nash.

The former CAO/Clerk John Regan resigned effective May 21st, and the part time interim CAO/Clerk Arie Hoogenboom completed his consulting work at the Village on June 29, 2018.

Contacts:

David Nash
Mayor
613-269-4791 ext. 230
mayor@merrickville-wolford.ca

Douglas Robertson
CAO/Clerk/Ec. Dev. Director
613-269-4791 ext. 229
cao@merrickville-wolford.ca